BRITISH WIN IN RENEWAL OF ATTACK ON SOMME

General Haig Reports Capture of 400 Yards of Trenches in Attack on the Positions That Now Defend Thiepval

DESPERATE COUNTER ASSAULTS REPULSED

Reports From Balkan Front Tell of Greeks' Defeat by Bulgars; While Serbs Claim to Be Holding Their Positions

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The British left wing on the Somme broke out with a new attack against the German positions defending Thiepval village last night and captured 400 yards more of trenches, General Haig reported to the war office this afternoon.

The beginning of the ninth week of the great Anglo-French offensive on the Somme saw the British line at this point steadily encircling the German fortified positions and threatening the capture of Thiepval, which has interfered with General Haig's advance since the Somme battle began.

The new British gain reported by General Haig was made near Mouquet farm. The British commander reported German counter-attacks south of Thiepval, but declared these attacks were repulsed. Repulse of German attacks west of Guillemont also was announced.

The German war office account of last night's operations on this front contradicted General Haig's statement. Berlin announced this afternoon that British attacks both on the Thiepval and Highwood sectors were repelled and that the French were unsuccessful in attacks near Maurepas.

The deadlock in the Balkan fighting continued throughout yesterday. The Serbs are holding their own on the extreme left and have delivered several strong counter-attacks, though the Bulgarian war office reports that the Serbs in each instance have been repulsed.

On the eastern front the Russians have again taken the initiative southwest of Stanislaw, after occupying the village of Guta, pressed on westward.

The German war office report on the Balkan fighting mentioned no further progress for the German-Bulgarian attack northwest of Ostrovo lake, along the Serbian front.

SOFIA, Aug. 26.—After severe fighting on the Bulgarian right wing on the Macedonian front the Serbs have been defeated with very heavy losses and compelled to retire, the war office announced yesterday. The consecutive attacks were made by the Serbs. On the eastern end of the front the Bulgarian forces have reached the Greek Aegean coast and put British cavalry detachments to flight. Several villages have been occupied by the Bulgarians. The statement says:

Our offensive on our right wing continues in the region of Moglentia mountain. Considerable Serbian forces, supported by neighboring troops, from the night of August 21 until the afternoon of August 23, attempted consecutive attacks. All their attacks were repulsed, whereupon the Serbs retired to their former positions. Their losses were immense.

Our left wing, advancing on the Aegean coast, met with British cavalry detachments, which took flight in the direction of Gogo and Orfano, pursued by our troops.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The Bulgarians have attacked and captured the Greek fort of Startila, after killing its commander. Changes, and the entire garrison, which offered spirited resistance, says a Saloniki despatch to the Matin. The despatch is dated August 22 and was delayed.

German Diver Sinks War Craft Twenty-Three Men Lost in North Sea

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The tor-pedoing in the North Sea of a British naval auxiliary with the loss of twenty-three men was announced officially today.

Eighty-seven men were saved.
The torpedoed vessel was the armed boarding steamer Duke of Albany. The announcement follows:

"The British armed boarding steamer Duke of Albany was torpedoed and sunk in the North Sea on Thursday by an enemy submarine. The commander and twenty-two men were lost. Eleven officers and 76 men of other ratings were saved."

RUSSIANS CLAIM GAINS FIGHTING IN CARPATHIANS

Austrians Say Hungarian Advance of Slavs Partly Checked.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 26.—In the foothills of the Carpathians in Galicia the Russians have pressed back the Austrians and made considerable advances, occupying a village, it was announced officially today.

In the Carpathians west of Na-dovna the statement says, "our advanced guards, having dispersed the enemy, occupied the village of Guta and reached the sources of the River Bystritsa and Bystritsa-Nadvorna in the region of Rafalov."

BERLIN, Aug. 26.—Russian troops which are attempting to advance in the Carpathians toward the Hungarian border have been partly repulsed, the official Austrian report of August 25 announces. The statement says:

"Front of Archduke Charles Anastasi: west of the Moldova and in the direction of Tatar pass, several Russian attacks were partially repulsed in hand-to-hand fighting. The enemy suffered large losses."

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg: In the sector of Terepelnik-Pienik we recaptured all the trenches lost August 22. One officer, 211 men and several machine guns were captured."

PETROGRAD, Aug. 26.—The Russians are pressing the advantage recently gained over the Austrians in Southern Turkish Armenia, according to today's official statement, which says:

On the line extending from the town of Kurat to Lake Van sub-born fighting continues. Our troops, after having occupied the town of Mush, advanced to the ridge of Kurat Dagu, where we captured a number of prisoners.

In the direction of Mosul we continue to pursue the remnants of the fourth Turkish division.

Turks Report They Caused British to Flee

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 26.— British and Turkish reconnoitering parties have clashed at a point less than twenty miles east of the Suez canal in the coast region, the British war office announced yesterday, according to today's announcement by the war office. The official statement says:

Caucasus front: We repulsed attacks against our advanced positions on the right wing. At one point the enemy, despite a threefold superiority, was forced to retreat before the resistance of our troops.

A hostile monitor unsuccessfully bombarded the coast near Potcha.

After an engagement between hostile reconnoitering parties west of our advanced positions twenty-five kilometers (about sixteen miles) east of Suez, the enemy fled.

HUGHES IS CONFIDENT OF RESULT

Republican Presidential Nominee Reaches Colorado and Says He Feels Sure of Support of Those He Addressed

Candidate Will Make Three More Speeches and Then Will Seek Three-Day Rest:
Warm Welcome in Wyoming

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 26.—With three speeches in Colorado today, Charles E. Hughes concluded the first lap of his presidential campaign touring, and was to leave tonight for a three-day rest period at Estes Park.

Up to today the Republican candidate has campaigned through thirteen states, being almost continuously in what have been declared by local leaders to be Republican states, except possibly California and Illinois.

He has made more than a hundred speeches and arrived at Denver today very tired physically, although well and exceedingly anxious for a complete rest in the seclusion of the mountains. But he was very sanguine of success when the ballots are cast by the people whom he has addressed.

Describing his trip, the nominee said:
"We have had a remarkable trip across the continent. Everywhere there has been evidence of a very deep interest in the issues of this campaign. I do not attribute this to my personal relation to the campaign, but to the deep interest that is shown by American people in the great questions involved. As I go through the country I am constantly impressed with the extraordinary resources that we have for our development and for our permanent prosperity. Best of all is the fine manhood and womanhood that is utilizing these resources. We find patriotism and unserving loyalty—that characterizes the people throughout the length and breadth of the land.
Every day on this trip is the best day."

WELCOME MAKES APPEAL.
I have been several times across the continent and I know communities of the various countries, but to go through in this way, receiving generous welcomes, makes an appeal to the heart of a man.

Despite his physical tiredness, Hughes is in splendid fighting form today.

He has had big audiences everywhere, and no matter how tired, he has been stimulated by these addresses into making "punchy" speeches at the end of the line, even though these speeches have been largely identical.

It is rather remarkable that a public speaker, who for six years has kept his voice bottled up, has managed to bring it back so that not a single place where he has visited has far less the audience had any difficulty in understanding him.

Dr. N. E. Dittman, who has accompanied the governor on his trip and done heroic work taking the husky and otherwise keeping him in the physical fettle, announced today he would let the governor take care of himself from Kansas City on eastward, believing he did not need any further traveling. Mrs. Hughes will then have full charge of the tour.

SPEAKS IN CHEYENNE.
CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 26.— Charles E. Hughes addressed an audience at Frontier Park here last night on the importance of upbuilding American industries to meet European competition after the war. This, he said, could not be done unless a tariff for revenue only, but could be accomplished under a protective tariff such as the Republican party proposed.

"We have set aside our differences in order that we may achieve great national aims," Hughes said. These aims are so high that they transcend every possibility of difference. I come as the spokesman of a historic party, dedicated to the service of the great nation at an extremely critical time.

The problems that we are facing today are not exactly like those which we have dealt with in the past. We have entered upon a new era of history. I do not think the world will be the same world after the European war as it was before.

INDUSTRY BUILDING.
The upbuilding of American industry, he said, lies at the very foundation of the future of the United States. It can never be done under an administration that frames its tariff for revenue only.

Hughes reiterated his declaration that he favored the appointment only of competent, experienced men to the diplomatic service. He also assailed the administration's foreign policy, and cited its course toward Mexico as "a conspicuous example of what we ought not to do."

'Pat' Calhoun Says Assets Only $5 $14,000,000 Fortune Dwindled Away

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Patrick Calhoun, grandson of the famous statesman and prominently identified with the San Francisco street car system until a few years ago, testified in a receivership proceeding here that it was the only tangible asset remaining of a fortune of $14,000,000 possessed by him five years ago. The proceedings became known today.

Financial reverses following the big fire in San Francisco were responsible for his losses, he asserted. Receivership proceedings were brought against Calhoun in a suit for office rent.

BORDEN AND PARTY SAFE FROM DEATH

ON BOARD U. S. COAST GUARD CUTTER McCULLOUGH, Bering Sea, Aug. 26.—Radio to Seattle.—The power schooner Great Bear, carrying the Arctic expedition headed by John Borden of Chicago and Captain Louis Lane of Seattle, was wrecked on a pinnacle rock in Eering Sea August 10.
The vessel was a total loss, but the entire party landed safely on St.
Matthew's island, where they were found yesterday by the McCulloch.

The members of the party aboard the Great Bear were able to land and provisions on St. Matthew's island lived comfortably fifteen days until the McCulloch, which had been sent from Nome to search for the vessel, found them yesterday. Borden and his entire party were taken aboard the McCulloch, which started back to Nome last night.

The loss of the Great Bear will not cause Stefansson to suffer from lack of supplies, but will necessitate his returning to the Arctic region than he desired. When Stefansson left Seattle in June, 1913, he intended remaining in the north three and one-half years, but after meeting Captain Lane, decided that if the additional supplies could be obtained he would stay only one year.
It is likely that when Stefansson finds the Great Bear at Banksland next month he will start home on the Polar Bear.

SEATTLE, Aug. 26.—The coast guard cutter McCulloch, which rescued John Borden and his companions on the wrecked power schooner Great Bear, is expected to leave Seattle Alaska, tomorrow, according to a message received here today from Mrs.
Louis Lane, wife of Captain Lane, master of the schooner. Mrs. Lane, his sister, Mrs. Isabel Robins and Captain Lane's niece, Miss Anita Allen, are at Nome, where they went to join the Borden-Lane expedition into the Arctic.

The new power schooner Great Bear, built here this year for John Borden, the Chicago millionaire, and Captain Louis Lane, a widely known Arctic navigator, was wrecked on July 26 for an extended cruise in the Arctic. When the vessel left here Borden, Captain Lane and Norris Blockum of Chicago and a crew of twenty men were the only members of the expedition aboard. Others who were to go with the party into the Arctic went by mail steamer to Nome, where they expected to join the expedition.

The Great Bear was specially constructed to withstand the pressure of the Arctic ice floes, and it was Captain Lane's intention to penetrate as far as Banksland, where he expected to meet Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, for whom he carried supplies.

The Great Bear was the most staunchly built Arctic craft that ever left Seattle.

She was 175 feet long, 32 feet beam, with a draft of 14 feet, and cost more than $75,000. Her thick oak hull was sheathed in Australian iron bark, a heavy timber having great powers of resistance, and Captain Lane and Borden were confident she could weather any storm and withstand the severest battering in the ice field.

Lusitania's Destroyer Decorated With Medals

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The Striftende, of Ribe, Denmark, is quoted in a Reuters dispatch from Copenhagen as saying the commander of the submarine which sunk the Lusitania was Captain Valentiner, son of the dean of Sondersborg Cathedral.
Captain Valentiner, this newspaper says, has been decorated with a number of orders since the sinking of the liner, including the Iron Cross of the first class and the Hohenzollern House Order with swords, a special distinction which is the personal gift of the German emperor.

Allies in Discussion of Greek Status

ATHENS, Aug. 26.—The present political and military situation, says the Patria, has resulted in an exchange of views among the allies regarding the attitude to be taken towards Greece. It is questioned by entente diplomatists, the newspaper states, whether the measures agreed to by Greece in response to the demands of the allies, including demobilization of the army and government offering all necessary guarantees for benevolent neutrality are in favor of the new situation.

SHREVEPORT, La., Aug. 26.— Jesse Hamet, a negro in jail at Vivian, twenty miles north of here, accused of attempting an assault upon a white woman, was lynched by a mob there today.

BACON ALONE IN ROLL CALL FOR JOHNSON

Motion to Endorse Governor Has Vote of Man Who Made It and No More; Substitute Measure Has Similar Fate

Republican State Executive Committee Keep Campaign Body in Office; St. Sure's Resolution Is Then Adopted

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The attempt of Walter R. Bacon, chairman of the Republican State executive committee, to do Johnson politics and to jam through a resolution recommending that it support the victor at the polls next Tuesday, he wills H. Booth or Hiram W.
Johnson, was defeated by the overwhelming vote of 23 to 1 at a meeting of the committee held at the Palace Hotel this morning.

Bacon himself was the only man to vote for his resolution and for a substitute measure which he also attempted to pass. The first measure calling upon Republicans to support Johnson should he be chosen to obtain the Republican nomination, was followed by a second in which it was set forth that Republicans welcomed the support of Johnson in the campaign in behalf of Governor Hughes and hoped for a reunited Republican party.

THE RESOLUTION.
A resolution proposed by Judge A. F.
St. Sure of Alameda was unanimously concurred in subsequently and was passed by the same vote which sent the other measure to defeat.

Whereas, the executive committee of the Republican State Central Committee should, on May 10, 1916, at a regular meeting, have adopted a motion and a unanimous vote, delegate all its authority to the state campaign committee, to conduct the national and state campaigns; and

Whereas, the campaign committee has proceeded under that authority working at all times in complete harmony with the chairman of the Republican State Central Committee and endorses the action of the National Committee of California; and

Whereas, the campaign committee is conducting its work along lines of harmony with the wishes of its executive committee and in the interest of party loyalty, as expressed by all members of the County Central Committees in two recent conventions and to the full satisfaction of the rank and file of the Republican party; therefore be it

Resolved, that the executive committee hereby expresses its full confidence in the campaign committee and endorses the work it has accomplished in creating and maintaining Republican sentiment in the State;

Resolved, that we also have the fullest confidence in the political wisdom and courage of the course in this campaign pursued by the chairman of the State Central Committee and the California member of the National Republican Committee;

Resolved, that we censure all attempts that have been made to bring within the party to cause party strife by the injection of subjects that lead to discord, as we realize that the campaign committee is doing all within its power to work consistently for a representative party organization, one that is responsive to the will of the great rank and file of Republicans in the State and through which the Republican ideals have been made effective in this State.

Resolved, that we continue the State campaign committee in authority in this campaign until such time as such a committee shall be chosen, as provided by law.

Infantile Paralysis Epidemic Dying Out

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The number of new cases of infantile paralysis continues to decrease. In the opinion of local health authorities the epidemic is on the wane and may be entirely extinguished by the time schools are reopened in mid-September. During the 24 hours ended at 10 a. m. today there were only 91 new cases, the lowest in a month, and 25 deaths. Yesterday there were 94 new cases and 22 deaths.

Morgan, Shop Thief, Given Twelve Years

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—John E.
Morgan, arrested here recently while stealing an expensive suit in a downtown hotel on a charge of robbing a number of large stores, was sentenced today to serve twelve years in San Quentin penitentiary. Morgan pleaded guilty yesterday when taken before the Superior Court for trial.

Italian Attack Has Failed, Says Austria

BERLIN, Aug. 26.—The Italian attack recently inaugurated in the Dolomite in the northern part of a front, has failed and the fighting is dying down, the official Austrian announcement of yesterday says. The statement also reports skirmishing along the Vojuna river, in Albania, north of Avlona.

British Airships Bomb Germans One Craft Is Lost in Brussels Raid

LONDON, Aug. 26.—British airships have made another dash over Belgium, on this occasion penetrating to the vicinity of Namur, forty-six miles southeast of Brussels, and bombarding German airship sheds. One airship is missing. An official account of these operations issued today
says:

"Early Friday morning an attack was carried out by naval airships upon enemy airship sheds near Namur. The sheds were successfully bombarded and two of them were hit, but due to low-lying clouds it was not possible to observe the damage done. One of our machines failed to return."

WOMAN IS HELD FOR MURDER OF GUARD OFFICER

Captain Sprattling Ruined Her Life, Mrs. H. C. Adams Excuse.

MACON, Ga., Aug. 26.—Capt. Edgar J. Sprattling of Company F, Fifth Regiment, National Guard of Georgia, was shot and killed in his tent at the state militia camp near here by Mrs. H.
C. Adams of Atlanta. At the county jail, where she was held on a charge of murder, Mrs. Adams asserted that Captain Sprattling, who was a physician, had offended her by attentions paid her several weeks ago while she was in his office in Atlanta for treatment. A coroner's jury held Mrs.
Adams to the county grand jury on a charge of murder.

Mrs. Adams, a woman about 30 years of age, came from her home in Atlanta and went directly to the camp.
At Captain Sprattling's tent she asked the officer if he were Captain Sprattling, and on being answered in the affirmative fired at him twice from a small-caliber revolver, both shots taking effect.

According to Lieutenant Samuel A.
Kysor of Company F, who seized her a moment later, she cried out as she shot the officer: "You have ruined my home."

After the shooting she seemed hysterical. She said afterward Captain Sprattling had treated her for a nervous trouble. She declared: "I decided there was but one thing for me to do, and I did it. When the testimony comes out, I feel sure the public will be with me."

According to information received here, Mrs. Adams left her home in Atlanta shortly after her husband, who is employed at a laundry, had gone to work, leaving her three children at home. She said she had previously told her husband of alleged improper relations between her and the captain.

Captain Sprattling was 47 years old and married. He was regarded as an expert on insanity and once was connected with the Matteawan, N. Y., asylum in that capacity.

His wife was placed in a half-mast in the state camp and preparations were made to take the officer's body to Atlanta under military escort.

Rumanian Ministers Increase Army Credit

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 26.—In a decree of the Rumanian council of ministers, published in the Monitor, the extraordinary credit for the army is increased by 200, 000,000 francs to 600,000,000 francs, according to telegrams from Bucharest.
The Monitor announces that General Paraskevich has been appointed director of munitions, adds the despatch, and that General Popovic, inspector-general of cavalry, has been appointed to command the first army corps in succession to General Averco.

Peak Dominating Base for Submarine Taken

PARIS, Aug. 26.—A despatch from Avlona states that the Italians have occupied Porto Palermo and the summit of Mount Kalarat, in Southern Albania, which gives a view of the Albanian coast north of Cape Kephal, fifty miles southeast of Avlona, in which district there is said to be an Austrian submarine base. The territory occupied is considered quasi-Greek. The opinion of Romanians, however, is that Greece will not protest the occupation.

California "Loses" Its National Guard

HEADQUARTERS CALIFORNIA OR-GANIZED MILITIA, NOGALIS, Ariz., Aug. 26.—California no longer has a National Guard. The state soldiery is now the "organized militia." The War Department has dropped the term "national guard" and in all military matters the state armies are referred to as the organized militia.

Under provisions of the Dick law, through which California troops were mustered into federal service, it was declared they could not legally be termed national guard. The new title is carried in all official orders.

LITTLE HOPE OF AVERTING THE-UP OF RAILROADS

President's Peace Proposal Is Ignored and Substitute of Employers' of Such Nature That Men Expect to Quit

ARBITRATION QUESTION BLOCKS AGREEMENT

Roads Insist That Eight-Hour Day Demand Be Included in Investigation of the Terms Proposed by Brotherhoods

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—A crisis became evident today in the negotiations to prevent the threatened railroad strike. A break between the railroad brotherhoods, representing 400,000 men, and the railroad presidents, representing twelve billions of capital, seemed certain.

Sixty executives, called here a week ago by President Wilson, have ignored his peace proposal and decided to submit a substitute proposition, which even the most optimistic feel the brotherhoods will turn down. It provides:

That the question of an eight-hour day is not directly connected with the matter at issue, and that there is a difference between an actual eight-hour day and an eight-hour day as a basis for pay.

That the questions of increase of wages are indisputably questions which should be settled by arbitration.

The present demands of the trainmen be submitted to arbitration by the Interstate Commerce Commission or some board to be created by the President, or in some other way.

That if the arbitration board grants wage increases should be retroactive and the increase will take effect from the time the arbitration begins.

The railroads to provide for this contingency, the Interstate Commerce Commission to keep the accounts that will be necessary, and the arrangements to continue in force for a period not yet determined upon the terms of arbitration there shall be no further demands nor any attempt to strike.

VEILED CHALLENGE

The proposition is less than 400 words long and is the first concrete plan that has been voted on at any time by the executives and men in unanimous approval. It is the only proposal that will come from the roads, according to one of the leading executives today, and he added, "It is better than the brotherhood leaders deserve. If they don't like it, they know what they can do."

With this action unanimously agreed upon at a conference last night, the roads passed the question of a strike or peace back to President Wilson and the brotherhoods.
Ratification of the proposition was to be voted by the executives and managers today and immediately afterward it was to be tendered the President. The latter planned to see the brotherhood leaders at noon.

Late this afternoon the railroad executives adjourned without having finished their statement to President Wilson, which has been voted and announced as unopposed.

When he finished conferring with Senators Kern and Newlands at the capitol, President Wilson came to the White House and said to inquirers:
"I came here for certain matters of legislation. That is all I can say now."

ATTITUDE NOT HOPEFUL.
After making the foregoing announcement, President Wilson returned to the White House without conferring with any one else and without making any further explanation of his visit. Senator Newlands stated positively that no joint session of Congress had been arranged.
Just before the President went to the capitol the brotherhood leaders, impatient at the delay of the railroad executives in replying to the President's last proposal, declared that only the eight-hour day or some action by Congress to cause the government to operate the railroads could prevent the threatened strike. "On all hands the President's visit to the capitol was taken as indicating that the situation has reached a critical stage. The employees' session adjourned shortly after noon until 2 o'clock.
The brotherhood heads had been closed in their hotel during the meeting, waiting for word from the White House which, it was said, would not be forthcoming until the President had received the proposal of the railroads.

URGE REPUBLICAN UNITY AT POLLS

Committees Issue Statement Asking Solid Support for Booth.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Urging the Republicans of California to do their duty at the polls at the primary election next Tuesday, National Committee Chairman William H. Crocker, Chairman F. V. Keessling of the Republican state central committee and Vice-Chairman W. P. Mixon of the Republican state campaign committee today issued the following statement:

Whether the Republican party of California shall be guided by loyal Republicans or is to be turned over to opportunists is the big issue at the primary election next Tuesday.

The preservation of the Republican party hinges on the nomination of a candidate for United States Senator. Now that Judge Walter B. Dorey has withdrawn his candidacy in behalf of Willis H. Booth of Los Angeles, there are only two men seeking the Republican nomination.

One is Willis H. Booth, a genuine Republican, who received the endorsement at the conference in San Francisco on July 29 of Republican state central and county committee members from all parts of California. He is a man who may be depended upon to support Hughes as President in carrying out the policies of the Republican party as set forth in the Republican platform.

The other candidate is Hiram Johnson. He is registered as a Progressive and is asking for the Republican nomination.

Hiram Johnson has devoted the greater part of the last six years in trying to wreck the Republican party. He has no opposition for the Progressive nomination and will therefore be on the November ballot as a candidate for United States Senator.

In violation of a basic principle of primary law, however, Hiram Johnson seeks to have his name appear as a Republican candidate also, practically disfranchising Republicans of California in the election of a United States Senator in November.

This is a government by parties, not individuals. Hiram Johnson is not a Republican. He has not endorsed the Republican national platform and he has no assurance that he would, if elected, support the party policies. Being of another party, he could not consistently represent the Republican party because a man cannot serve two masters.

Johnson Politics Are Explained to Women

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The Republican party in California, if it nominates Hiram Johnson, will give evidence of such a spiritual transformation that Johnson can accept the nomination—so said Chester Rowell yesterday when he tried to tell the members of the San Francisco Center of the California Civic League why Johnson, who is a registered Progressive, can seek the Republican nomination.

He was followed on the program by Samuel M. Shortridge, who seemed to have the majority of his audience with him in his advocacy of Willis H. Booth.

"The smoothly running political machine in California," said Shortridge, "is turning vigorously for Johnson. Every vote is oiled with patronage and there are no squeaks or dissonances. The machine is bent upon the nomination to the United States Senate of a man who is not a Republican, who helped in the disfranchisement of Republicans in this state, who contributed to the defeat of Joseph R. Knowland, the Republican, and the election of James Phelan, the Democrat; who has kept alive the Progressive party in California and still has the audacity to ask the Republicans of the state to make him their nominee for the United States Senate."

Crosby Will Address Meeting at Hayward

HAYWARD, August 26.—Peter J. Crosby, Republican candidate for Congress, and Frank M. Hart, candidate for state senator, will address a meeting in Native Sons hall Monday evening. Both candidates are residents of this city and a large gathering is expected to hear them talk.

Williams Named to Important Position

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—E. H. Williams of Chicago has been appointed an assistant to Fred W. Upham, Western treasurer of the Republican national committee. He will leave tomorrow for a trip to the Pacific coast on official business.

Re-elect John F. Mullins Supervisor. Advt.

VICE REPORT IN FILMS TELLS STORY OF RUIN

Scene from "Little Girl Next Door," vice commission film to be shown at Broadway Theater.

Broadway Offers Review of Tragic Life in Underworld

The producing company did not have the proverbial kid gloves on when handling this sociological play, 'The Little Girl Next Door' at the Broadway, starting Sunday. For here everything is treated with absolute frankness. And it is the kind of frankness that means sensationalism in a picture of this kind.

The production was based on the reports of the Illinois vice commission and aims to show the existence of vice and immorality at our very doorstep. It really has no plot. It is merely a recital of the lives of several unfortunate girls, how they were trapped, and in some cases, rescued, and in others forced to lead a life of shame.

There is an eulogium, in a strange city her winsomeness attracts the hurples in human form, and she is separated from her boy husband, drugged and delivered into the pit.

A girl answers an advertisement of an elderly woman, who is a white slave and the girl is sold into a hideous bondage.

Then there are others—all of them drawn from life and from actual experience as related to the Illinois state senate vice commission, and it fulfills well its task of driving home the lessons of the dangers that lurk in city streets, and in a girl's desire for adventure and thrills, and in a meagre wage.

The film shows the commission in session in the Hotel La Salle, and shows the witnesses who come to tell of their experience and to name a remedy for the evils that exist. There are Arthur Burroughs, Virginia Brooks, Judge Hopkins, Champ Clark, Dr. John Dill Robertson, Mrs. Alice Phillips, Aldrich, Mayor Thompson, Chief Healey, John Dill Robertson, Corporation Counsel Etzelson and Alderman Lawley.

Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara and Senator Beall are the principal narrators of the stories that developed as a result of the investigations.

Senator Juhl, Dr. Brushingham, Wirt H. Hallum, secretary of the Illinois Vigilance Association; Dr. Ernest Bell of the Midnight Mission; Mrs. Maud Cain Taylor of the Political Equality League. The opinions of many of these people on the remedy for the social evil were flashed on the screen.

The finale of the picture is a series of pictures taken in different cities showing the closed-up vice districts.

PLYMOUTH CENTER HEARS CANDIDATES
Crosby is Praised by Derriek, Who Is Rival for Honors.
Candidates for Congress gathered last night in the auditorium of Plymouth Center and addressed a large gathering of voters from the lower Piedmont district on the issues of the campaign. Rev. Albert W. Palmer had invited the aspirants for office to speak. Peter J. Crosby, J. Arthur Elston and Dr. George H. Derriek responded. T. C. West was unable to be present because of a previous appointment.

Each speaker discussed the field of national politics and legislation. Crosby and Derriek emphasized their position before the voters on one ticket, the Republican, while Elston acknowledged he was seeking two nominations, Progressive and Republican, because he was first before the people as a Progressive when he was elected to the office two years ago. He declared his determination, if elected, to work for the interests of the entire district and spoke of the prospect of a naval base in San Francisco bay.

Dr. Derriek paid a glowing tribute to his opponent, Crosby, and, while urging his own candidacy for the nomination, was able to speak in praise of a man who was a single party candidate. Derriek, two years ago, running on the Republican ticket, against Elston, came very close to election, being accepted as a strong party enthusiast. He is now making a vigorous fight for the nomination of his party.

Crosby spoke briefly of his long service in the ranks of the Republicans, of being committed to party standards and to the Chicago platform of the national convention. Crosby cast, as a delegate to the convention from this state, all his ballots for Hughes and is an ardent supporter of the head of the ticket.

MILITIAMEN UNDER ARMY HEADS ONLY

So Rules Judge, Passing on Arrest of Soldiers; Arrested Men Freed.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 26.—Judge J. B. Sater, of the United States District Court last night rendered a decision that "general jurisdiction over National Guardsmen serving under the new federal oath is supreme and paramount," and that "the state cannot interfere with officers and men in military establishments, when such interference might deprive the government of the services of soldiers."

The decision was handed down upon evidence submitted in the hearing of a writ of habeas corpus growing out of charges of assault brought against Captain W. G. Wulzen, and Sergeant T. Doyle, of the Third Regiment, Ohio National Guard, who were alleged to have assaulted Charles Baker, a socialist orator at Hamilton, Ohio, June 22, when he made statements considered derogatory to the National Guard mobilization.

The men were arrested while encamped on the state house lawn here yesterday while acting in capacity of provost guards. Judge Sater ordered the men released, his opinion being that even temporary confinement under civil restraint might interfere with their moment as United States soldiers, in the case the Ohio troops were ordered to the border. Military authorities infer that the men may be tried on the charges in court-martial, but it is considered that the ruling has closed the case. Officers consider the ruling the most important rendered in connection with military service in fifty years.

Priest Plunges From Sixth Floor of Hotel
CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Rev. Ignatius Thomazin, 70, Catholic priest of Albany, Minn., plunged to his death here today from the rear of the sixth floor of the Sherman hotel. He had been ill several months, it was said. His head struck the pole of a scavenger's wagon and the horses ran away.

Rev. Thomazin came here from St. Cloud, Minn., July 24. He was accompanied by Mrs. Martha McCloskey, his housekeeper, who said he had been despondent since his retirement from active church service because of age. He planned to appeal to Archbishop Mundellin, it was said, for a new parish.

SCHOOL HEAD SAYS THREAT IS BABY TALK

Principal E. N. Mabrey Replies to Trustee F. J. Russell in Fight Over Introduction of Sciences Into Lower Grades

Hayward Board Divided by Break With Educator; Town to Decide Upon Additions to Curriculum by Ballot

HAYWARD, Aug. 25.—In a reply to School Trustee F. J. Russell, one of the central figures in the Hayward grammar school row, Principal E. N. Mabrey characterizes Russell's alleged threat to oust him from office as "baby talk, too foolish to discuss."

Mabrey's statement regarding the controversy which has caused to be called two mass meetings in Hayward Wednesday night, was made today. It follows:

"This community, by petitioning against the levying of a $10,000 tax for the introduction of kindergarten, manual training and domestic science, is maintaining the school children of their birthright. Ninety per cent of the 883 pupils now at the grammar school probably will not attend high school and therefore will not have an opportunity of studying domestic science and manual training unless these subjects are introduced into this school."

ADVOCATED COURSE.

"It is for the people to decide whether the persons concerned, a few men will stunt the education of the grammar school pupils by preventing these subjects being added to the curriculum. I have advocated the teaching of these subjects in the lower schools for the past ten years or ever since I came here. I am making this fight to have it introduced for the sake of the children, not for the sake of the trustees."

"An for the trustees, I am principal of this school, not a trustee. I cannot criticize my work as a school teacher. My grievance is merely personal."

GRIEVANCES.

"Discussing the calling by Trustee Russell of a meeting next Wednesday night in opposition to that by himself and School Trustees Mrs. L. R. Rosenberg and E. J. L. Rosenberg, I declared that Russell did so on account of personal grievance."

"The purpose of the Russell meeting, according to Trustee Russell, is to oppose the plans of Mabrey and the majority members of the school board in regard to the question of introducing kindergarten, manual training and domestic science. The electors will be given an opportunity to their views on the subject at both meetings."

Fear Chicago Banker Has Taken Own Life

Has Adolph Silver, ruined Chicago banker, smarting under the disgrace of his failures, taken his own life? This is the fear of his relatives. Silver left Oakland for Chicago, by way of Los Angeles, last Sunday. Louis Weiner, his uncle, the last man to see him, is now instituting a search to find traces of the missing man, for so word has been heard from the banker since he started on his trip East.

Discussing the last time the missing man was seen Weiner said:

"At times he did not talk coherently. Although he was not implicated in the wrecking of his Chicago banks, he felt the disgrace keenly and was reluctant to face his accusers. Adolph blames his brother, Max Silver, for the bank failure."

Old Coolie Smuggler Charge Brings Arrest

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—Immigration officers here, with Edward Hall, captured Monday in San Diego, was charged with landing thirty-two Chinese coolies at Monterey Bay from the launch Comrade in November, 1911. Although the search for him has continued almost five years, Tracey, according to his attorney, has for more than two years been operating a taxicab in Los Angeles. He was arrested at his taxicab stand.

There are two federal indictments pending against Tracey. Both relate to alleged trips of the Comrade in September and November, 1911.

FIANCEE TO TAKE REMAINS TO GRAVE

Mrs. Potter Plans Sad Journey to Iowa With Body of Orrin Wilson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The body of Orrin A. Wilson, prominent slumber and bridge broker, lies cold in death and his fiancée, Mrs. Nella Tidcomb McCormick Potter, is recovering under opiates from the shock of his death, as the result of the stumble of a polo pony on Thursday afternoon at Hotel Del Monte. Wilson died yesterday afternoon at the Adler sanitarium.

The accident occurred during the second chukker of a polo match at the racetrack, held near Sausalito. Harry Hunt had rushed the ball down the field and Wilson and Eric Pedley attempted to block his play. In the melee, Pedley's horse stumbled and crashed into Wilson's mount, throwing the latter to the ground. Wilson fell on the back of his head and was knocked unconscious.

Despite the efforts of physicians, he did not regain consciousness, and his condition became so serious that he was brought to this city. Dr. Emmett Rixford and Dr. Alanson Weeks operated on him at Adler sanitarium in vain endeavor to save his life. Mrs. Potter had been notified of his condition and was at his bedside when the end came. She was completely prostrated by the shock and was removed to her apartments in the Cliff hotel.

Wilson was the Pacific Coast representative of the Clinton Bridge and Iron Company. He was a member of the Bohemian, University and Olympic Clubs, a graduate of Stanford in the class of 1904, and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was 37 years old and had lived in California fifteen years.

Mrs. Potter, who was to have married him in a very short time, is the divorced wife of Capt. Paul Potter, U. S. N. Her first husband was James Bruce Adams from whom she was divorced in 1905 with the right to resume her maiden name. She is the sister of Miss Evelyn McCormick, the artist; Mrs. Ellis Parish and Mrs. Brewer of New York.

Mrs. Potter intends to accompany the body of her fiancé on the funeral journey to Clinton, Iowa.

Novel Billboard Used to Advertise Library

More than 1800 signboards, all of the same design, are greeting library visitors in thirty-six counties of California today. The signboards, representing progress and organization in the county free library system, which has grown to tremendous proportions in the eight years of its existence. The sign came about in an effort to design a sign through a unity of color, size and picture the chain of the book-lending systems extending through the state.

All the signs were mailed yesterday in all of the branches and headquarters of the organization. The system has only been in existence since 1908, growing from a $1500 concern to one; the income of which is $400,000 for the year. Over 500,000 volumes are in steady use by the patrons of the system.

Hope is expressed by the county free library officials that every county in the state will, in time, have branches ramifying throughout its territory. Alameda county has employed such library privileges since 1910 when the Board of Supervisors established the local institution. Today, twenty-nine branch libraries exist in the county free library system, among which are eighteen schools, receiving service at a nominal cost.

Wilson Saves Family From Being Deported

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A special order from President Wilson, which reached the steamship New Amsterdam just before the liner sailed yesterday saved Mrs. Sarah Schmelson and her daughter, Esther, from deportation. The woman's husband was executed by the Russians in Suwalki, Russian Poland, for selling bread to the Germans after the Teutons first captured that place. When the Germans retook the town the widow, her daughter and her 15-year-old son were sent to Berlin and given a passport to America with orders not to return.

The immigration authorities ordered the girl deported for feeble-mindedness, and the mother was ordered to accompany her. The boy was permitted to go to relatives in Chicago.

Miners at Chloride Strike for More Pay

KINGMAN, ARIZ., Aug. 25.—One hundred and seventy-five miners employed at the Tennessee Mine of the United Smelting, Refining and Mining Company at Chloride struck today to enforce a demand of the cage men and firemen for a fifty-cent-a-day increase in pay. The pump men and engineers were ordered by the union to quit their posts at 1 o'clock tonight. Manager Muir offered to grant an increase of twenty-five cents a day, which was rejected by the strikers, union officials announced.

"Little Girl Next Door" Shows Perils of the City

THE producing company did not have the proverbial kid gloves on when handling this sociological play, "The Little Girl Next Door." For here everything is treated with absolute frankness. And it is the kind of frankness that means sensation in a picture of this kind.

The production was based on the reports of the Illinois vice commission and aims to show the existence of vice and immorality at our very doorstep. It really has no plot. It is merely a recital of the lives of several unfortunate girls, how they were trapped, and in some cases, rescued, and in others forced to a life of shame.

There is an eloquent, in a strange city her wretchedness attracts the harpist of an elderly woman who desires a companion. The woman is a white slave and the girl is sold into a hideous bondage.

Then there are others—all of them drawn from life and from actual experience as related to the Illinois vice commission, and it fulfills well its task of driving home the lessons of the dangers that lurk in city streets, and in a girl's desire for adventure and thrills, and in a meagre wage.

The film shows the commission in session in the Hotel La Salle, and shows the witnesses who come to tell of their experience and to name a remedy for the evils that exist. There are Arthur Burrage, Farwell, Virginia Brooks, Judge Hopkins, Champ Clark, Dr. John Dill, Robertson, Frank Auge, Phillips Aldrich, Mayor Thompson, Chief Healey, John Dill Robertson, Corporation Counsel Etilson and Alderman Lawley.

Lieutenant Governor Barratt, O'Hara and Senator Beall are the principal narrators of the stories that developed as a result of the investigations, and the incidents they relate are enacted by professional actors.

Sensor Juul, Dr. Brushingham, Wirt H. Hallam, secretary of the Illinois Vigilance Association, Dr. Ernest Bell of the Aldridge Mission, Mrs. Maud Cain Taylor of the Political Equality League. The opinions of many of these people on the remedy for the social evil were flashed on the screen.

The finale of the picture is a series of pictures taken in direct cities, showing and closed-up vice districts.

The value of the pictures has been demonstrated by the crowds of people that have crowded every theater that has been run in and it clearly shows that it is what the public want to see.

Other producers of underworld films have batted against the censorial barrier, and their murders, abductions and other red light thrills have been so much wasted film, so far as Chicago is concerned.

But the mysterious interests back of this production were so well planned, rolled every available city and state official and all our best known reformers on their cast.

Would Lieutenant Governor O'Hara of Illinois permit a film to be barred by the censors which show him and his aids apparently cleaning our fair city and which by sub-titles made him one of our greatest reformers?

He had Corporation Counsel Etilson, who also appears in the film as a douser of the city's red lights, render an "opinion," and that settled it. The producers were enabled to shower on the city all the film ardors that the unmanipulated censor board has barred during the years of its existence.

"The Little Girl Next Door" created a furore at the La Salle Theater, Chicago, and the Fortuna, in San Francisco, where crowds constantly waited admittance to this expose of the traffic in girls. This picture will be run at the Broadway for one week, starting tomorrow. It will be necessary to charge a special price of 10c and 20c for this extraordinary feature.

New World's Record for Passenger Flight Set

NEWPORT NEWS (Va.), Aug. 25.—A new world's record for distance covered in ten hours carrying a passenger was made yesterday by Victor Carlstrom of the Atlantic Coast Aeronautical Station, who made 861 miles, flying in a twin-motor land and water machine. His actual flying time was 8 hours and 40 minutes.

Officials of the station expect Carlstrom's feat to win the Curtiss aviation cup, which was awarded last year for a flight of less than 500 miles. They said the prize or bonuses won by the aviator would amount to $7000.

Despite the vogue for ice skating, there are still many who have not fallen for the enchantment of the rink, and the dinner dance yet remains triumphantly popular as a dependable evening's diversion. At the fortnightly dance at the Claremont Hotel this evening the site to be a number of smart dinner parties, the largest of which will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Havens.

Mr. and Mrs. Havens are entertaining among their thirteen or more guests a number of the young girls who are not to make their debut for another year and eight of the Piedmont set. The party will be seated at two tables, those at one to be Mr. and Mrs. William Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Engs, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Williamson and General and Mrs. Oscar Pittman Long.

The young people, who will form another gay group, include: Miss Sallia Havens, Miss Amy Long, Miss Sally Long, Miss Lorna Williamson, Miss Amelia Gordon, Arthur Selby, Jack Gordon, Walter Bruce, Ray Mitchell and Mollie Clark.

Miss Lorna Williamson goes East next month to attend an Eastern college, and Miss Amy and Miss Sally Long will likewise go on with their studies, remaining, however, in Piedmont. Unlike the daughters of several of the leading families across the bay they have had their debuts postponed for some time.

The return of Mr. and Mrs. Edson F. Adams and Miss Elizabeth Adams from San Diego is looked for early this week. Mrs. Adams and her daughter left over for tonight ago to enjoy the gayety of the southern exposition, and were joined last Monday by Mr. Adams. Miss Elizabeth Adams will be one of the debutantes of the autumn who will be entertained. It is certain, in a lavish fashion, but no date as yet has been set for her coming out.

To greet Charles Keeler, the Berkeley poet, who has been wandering, lecturing and writing in many foreign regions since he left five years ago, an unusually brilliant gathering from the ranks of professional musicians and other distinguished intellectually or socially will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fickensher in Berkeley.

Miss Kanvers, a noted German opera singer who is to join the Metropolitan Opera company next season, is to assist Mrs. Fickensher in receiving and will also be heard in a duet written by Savannah for her. Others assisting will be Miss Genevieve Keeler, daughter of the poet, Miss Edith Woodward, Mrs. V. H. Wilkinson, Miss Genevieve Young of Honolulu and Miss Ruth Crandall. Mr. Keeler himself is to give a number of verses from his latest book, "Victory," and to read there set in a musical form by two well-known New York composers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fickensher have asked, among others, to meet him: Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Samuels (Mabel Ringelman), Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir Shavitch (Tina Lerner), Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dutton, Signor and Madame de Grassi, Mayor and Mrs. Samuel Irving, Mrs. Elsa Reudiger, Mr. and Mrs. J. McManis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Upham, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Robson, Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook, Mrs. Gabriel Woodworth, Professor William Adams, Mrs. Howard Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Aurelia Rhehardt, Professor and Mrs. Helen Howard, Mrs. William Keith and many more.

Coronado's social aspect was much enlivened early this week by the arrival from the Mexican coast of the battleship San Diego and Colorado with Admiral William B. Caperton, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, and Rear Admiral Charles D. Johnson, commander-in-chief of the reserve force, United States Pacific fleet. The two admirals, with their scores of popular officers, and the J. H. McCulloughs and P. C. Havemeyers, who are there from New York, have added both interest and gaiety to Coronado's smart colony, with the result that many brilliant social happenings are on the calendar for the next fortnight.

One of the chief attractions is the summer tennis tournament in full swing at the Coronado. Entries for the first round were so numerous the opening date was put a day ahead, the men's singles starting Wednesday instead of Thursday. Probably the most discussed event of the tournament will be the mixed doubles, in which Florence and William McCarty of San Diego against Mrs. C. Hull and E. A. Walbridge of New York.

The round of society affairs had its beginning Monday night in an exciting French five bowling contest for the femal contingent. Miss Rhoda Fullam, daughter of Rear Admiral Fullam, was the victor, carrying away a beautiful silver cup, the second to her credit this season. Miss Rhoda Fullam was the honor guest at a dinner given by Mrs. Ethel Thomas, a small but pretty gathering at which Mrs. Fullam was the guest of honor. Miss Kathryn Meigs of New York, Miss Irene Gross of Pasadena, Mrs. T. Mallison, U. S. N., Lieutenants Reuben L. Walker and M. E. Manly of the personal staff of Rear Admiral Fullam, and Mrs. J. H. McCarty, U. S. A.; George W. Chessman of Pasadena and Ralston Page of San Francisco.

Aside from happenings of particular interest to the navy folk, the McCulloughs and Havemeyers are having an enjoyable reunion at the famous Del Monte. The McCulloughs arrived at Coronado in their private car with Miss Anne Brown, a beautiful girl, who is the daughter of the late Mr. McCullough of New York. They were joined several days later by the Havemeyers, who have just completed the westward trip of a transcontinental tour. Mrs. McCullough was Miss Anna Dodge, a niece of Mrs. Vanderbilt while Mrs. Havemeyer, formerly Miss Florence Brown, is the daughter of the late Mr. Brown. Havemeyer is a son of the late sugar king and a brother of Mrs. Cameron McKee Winslow, wife of Admiral Cameron McKee Winslow, who was retired at Coronado July 20.

Miss Dorothy Brown had been one of the most interesting of the younger visitors at Del Monte and in San Francisco until she went South, and was much entertained down the peninsula at her simplicity of manner and her charm made a decided impression recently at Del Monte when she appeared at the exclusive dinners and dances there, where she was often the guest of Mrs. Charles W. Clark.

Several from the east bay, including Miss Carmen Ghiradelli, Joseph Ghiradelli and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson, are spending a large part of the party this week at "Wynnamas," the fine estate of Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Gray (Charlie Butters). This place is one of the most attractive in that region, where so many magnificent country houses are either just completed or to soon be ready for occupancy.

Beach suppers, clam-bakes, fishing trips and long motor rides are filling the days, with many a party given at night. Last Wednesday evening one of these dinners celebrated Joseph Ghiradelli's birthday. Among those at the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guernsey of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morse of Los Angeles, Miss Delia Adams of New York, Miss Marguerite Fairman, Joseph Ghiradelli, Roy Turner and a number of others who dropped in for a dance afterwards.

Two of the many affairs that are filling the days before Miss Elizabeth Adams' wedding to Ralph Gordon in September 12 were the luncheon given today by Miss Anne Bangs and an informal afternoon at which Mrs. Helen Eugene Jackson was hostess yesterday. Both were enjoyed by practically the same coterie of girls, most of whom are favorites in Berkeley's younger set.

An interesting visitor from London this summer is MRS. NEWTON BOOTH KNOX, who, with her young son, NEWTON BOOTH KNOX JR., is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. Caroline Blossom, in Berkeley. As Elizabeth Blossom she was one of the belles of the east bay eight or ten years ago. Since her marriage she has been very much of a traveler and has lived principally in England, where she has been twice presented at court.

October 7 had been chosen by Miss Ruth Tisdale as the date for her marriage to John Norton. The ceremony was to take place at the residence of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Tisdale of Alhambra, in the presence of 100 or more guests. Miss Tisdale's two sisters, Mrs. Edward Leighton Varney (Deane Tisdale) and Mrs. Paul Gardiner (Dorothy Tisdale) will be the matrons of honor and the maid of honor will be Miss Clara Franck. This announcement has precipitated a mad dash to the home of the bride, where a house-party in honor of the affianced pair that will be given in Mill Valley next week by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jamison. Another affair planned for them is a large dinner on the evening of September 26, at which Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durney will preside.

Among the many functions planned in honor of the late Rear Admiral Fullam, daughter of Rear Admiral Fullam, was the victor, carrying away a beautiful silver cup, the second to her credit this season. They were joined several days later by the Havemeyers, who have just completed the westward trip of a transcontinental tour. Mrs. McCullough was Miss Anna Dodge, a niece of Mrs. Vanderbilt while Mrs. Havemeyer, formerly Miss Florence Brown, is the daughter of the late Mr. Brown. Havemeyer is a son of the late sugar king and a brother of Mrs. Cameron McKee Winslow, wife of Admiral Cameron McKee Winslow, who was retired at Coronado July 20.

Miss Dorothy Brown had been one of the most interesting of the younger visitors at Del Monte and in San Francisco until she went South, and was much entertained down the peninsula at her simplicity of manner and her charm made a decided impression recently at Del Monte when she appeared at the exclusive dinners and dances there, where she was often the guest of Mrs. Charles W. Clark.

Several from the east bay, including Miss Carmen Ghiradelli, Joseph Ghiradelli and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson, are spending a large part of the party this week at "Wynnamas," the fine estate of Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Gray (Charlie Butters). This place is one of the most attractive in that region, where so many magnificent country houses are either just completed or to soon be ready for occupancy.

Beach suppers, clam-bakes, fishing trips and long motor rides are filling the days, with many a party given at night. Last Wednesday evening one of these dinners celebrated Joseph Ghiradelli's birthday. Among those at the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guernsey of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morse of Los Angeles, Miss Delia Adams of New York, Miss Marguerite Fairman, Joseph Ghiradelli, Roy Turner and a number of others who dropped in for a dance afterwards.

Two of the many affairs that are filling the days before Miss Elizabeth Adams' wedding to Ralph Gordon in September 12 were the luncheon given today by Miss Anne Bangs and an informal afternoon at which Mrs. Helen Eugene Jackson was hostess yesterday. Both were enjoyed by practically the same coterie of girls, most of whom are favorites in Berkeley's younger set.

CONFESSIONS OF ROXANE

By FRANCES WALTER.

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

So this was the end of my dream of married happiness! It seemed only a day or two since Arthur and I had entered into our compact. How little did he know himself then! How little did I know myself! What a series of rapid changes had come over our lives since we in our simplicity had started forth hand in hand with only a platonic bond between us! How rapidly had things moved with both of us! Held together at first by a philosophy that was almost childish, we had grown to know each other to the opposite extreme of passion and fervid devotion, and then—how completely were our ideals shattered! I had raised him to a pedestal before which I had almost worshipped. He, in turn, had come to regard me as his sum total in life. Then the disillusionment! A fair face, a subtle perfume, the soft voice of a woman, and I was forgotten.

But my love had resisted. Claiming my right as a woman to the man of my dream, I had refused to let him go. I had succeeded in gaining him back, only to see him lured away by the siren. My own heart had been wrung with anxiety and fear, had found quiet and comfort for a moment in the confidence of a great, strong man—John Gordon. Yet I had remained faithful in every particular to my husband, only to find that for a third time he had been unable to resist a beautiful face.

So it was all over! Deserted by my husband, the debtor of my rival, it was no longer necessary for me to support my mother for a sum necessary to relieve me of this humiliating obligation. I went to the window and looked out at the bank of clouds, its trail of fire and glory on the western horizon. Shadows were falling upon the world. So it was with me. The sun of my life was setting. Soon only shadows and gloom would be about me.

I was aroused from my reverie by the entrance of Miss Thompson, returning from her walk. Ordinarily her presence would have filled me with grief, for we had grown to be so staunch friends that my heart beat faster when I saw her. But now I felt that my friend left me. I was not destined to bear this trouble alone.

This gentle little woman who had been sent to me in my illness was now a prop and a comfort in this time of anguish. She noticed at once that something was wrong and came swiftly to me. "You are not so well this evening, are you?"

The men of the Bohemian Club will act as hosts this evening at their most showing ever made of movies taken by night. These are the pictures taken by Percy Ryan, the electrical wizard who illuminated the Exposition so that it left all previous experiments in lighting far behind. Also they are of the Exposition that the occasion marks the revival of many memories of last year—the most brilliant year in California's social history.

Many of the members and their families will be in the audience and will enjoy gay supper parties afterwards.

Why Most Women Prefer a Modern Gas Range

AS RANGES were awarded Gold Medals at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Such recognition is an unprejudiced evidence of superiority. Gas ranges excel Modern Gas Ranges in durability—economy—efficiency. This, then, is the reason that no other line manufactured—that women prefer them to any other.

That you may know more of the advantages of the Range we describe herewith some of the special and exclusive features they possess.

THEY BAKE BETTER. No other ranges bake so evenly and quickly because they are equipped with the same oven construction as the famous patented and exclusive features.

BEST EQUIPPED. The sturdy white porcelain parts with which our cabinet style gas ranges are equipped make them not only sanitary but also beautiful. Porcelain broiler pan and burner tray provided.

EASIEST CLEANED. The rich, velvety baked-enameled black finish which requires no stove, blacking or the rounded smooth outlines take the work out of cleaning.

MOST ECONOMICAL. You can bake and broil at the same time with one set of burners. Modern Gas Ranges are planned for gas-saving.

THEY LAST LONGER. The material used in construction has been selected after the most exhaustive tests. Modern Gas Ranges are planned to give years of useful service.

BEST COOKING TOP. Made the right size so that the fire is in place. Gas valves are adjustable to any gas pressure. They are simple and perfect combined.

WONDERFULLY CONVENIENT. Oven linings can be easily removed. Top burners can be removed. Gas valves are adjustable to any gas pressure. They are simple and perfect combined.

SAVING. Complete burner set in one piece. No parts to be removed or altered. Made so that it can be replaced as air can mix readily with the gas and produce the heat fast.

SCHOOL LAND PURCHASE IS PROTESTED

Berkeley Citizens Hold Mass Meeting; Stand Is Taken Against City Acquiring Additional Property for Edifices

Citizens Protest Municipality's Coming Move; Speakers Urge Their Audience to Go to Polls to Defeat the Measure

Berkeley, Aug. 26.—Some 200 citizens gathered last night at the High School auditorium to protest against the purchase of additional land for the high school. A dozen speeches were made and the charges of lack of good faith and star-chamber methods on the part of a majority of the school board were freely made.

O. Davis, an attorney of 2344 Dwight way, presided. Among the speakers was Professor Albin Putzker, who called upon those present to show the school board by a majority attendance at next Thursday's school district election at which the board seeks the authorization from the people to make the purchase.

Miss M. A. Ross, who is circulating petitions to have placed on the ballot for the November election, a series of charter amendments which will take from the council power to initiate legislation, which will mean an assessment on real property, spoke of the alleged attempt of the Board of Education to purchase the land in question, on instalments, without referring the matter to the people and asked for support for her amendments.

GELDER TAKES ROSTRUM.

George Gelder addressed the audience and made a plea for a large representation at the election so that the election would be decisive. "I do not mean that the price is exorbitant," said Gelder, "the Board of Education would establish a dangerous precedent if they were allowed to purchase this property by submitting the matter to a handful of voters. There would be nothing to stop them from spending a half million dollars on the people's money authorized by the same fiscal election."

Mrs. Mary A. Cleveland, who acted as secretary of the meeting, spoke of the necessity of the election. "The lack of publicity which the election has had is due to the law under which it is called," said Mrs. Cleveland. "Notices are required to be posted in three conspicuous places which would probably be the only means of notifying the people of the election in a school district. Three hundred people but to post notices of an election to authorize someone to spend $150,000 of the people's money in a city of 70,000 people is ridiculous."

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS.

At the close of the meeting a resolution was adopted condemning the action of the Board of Education in attempting to purchase the property by authorization of an election and for a price which was called exorbitant. Mrs. M. G. Mitchell presented figures which she said she had obtained from the county assessor's books and which showed the property to be assessed at about $24,000.

It was the sense of the meeting that the opponents of the purchase elect the chairman of the next meeting and determine the issue by a secret ballot.

Police Get Reports of Petty Thievaries

Petty thefts were reported to the police today. Evan H. Lively, 1835 Allico street, reports that his room was entered in his absence and a Gladstone bag, a safety razor and a shotgun taken from the apartment. Mrs. H. B. Emmmons, who has an apartment in the Castleview Apartments, Twelfth and Grove streets, complains that an overcoat was taken from a closet.

C. E. Ritter, proprietor of a cigar store at 2725 Telegraph avenue, reports that burglars secured two boxes of cigars and three boxes of chewing gum during the night. A vacant house, owned by Dr. William P. M. Howe, 5555 Howe street, was entered and the plumbing taken. The house is located at 1712 Adeline street.

LOVE VANISHES WITH PROPERTY

Capitulated to Cupid at 82, Now Seeks Property and Freedom.

George Schmidt, who capitulated to an attack by Cupid at the age of 82 years and married Mrs. Wilhelmina Krambs, age 65, after handing her a deed to his property valued at $7000, has repented to her son, Frederick C. Krambs, the property he had turned over to her. That was not so bad had it not been that he discovered at the same time that instead of having turned over to his wife in the first place only half of his holdings as he believed, she had obtained it all.

The property is located at Eleventh avenue and East Fourteenth street. Schmidt is represented by Attorney W. B. Rinehart in his efforts to recover the property and obtain a divorce.

Rose E. Farquhar was not contented to settle down to married life, according to the divorce complaint of Vernan Farquhar, who alleges that his wife told him that she was not going to be an old hen because she was married, but that she was going to have a good time while young. They were married last January and separated last week.

Leslie E. Allen complains that his wife Florence had gone joy-riding with John Doe and made love to John.

Madeline L. Rason wants a divorce from Claud A. Rason on the grounds of desertion.

Mullins Speaks to Many Club Sessions

Supervisor John F. Mullins spent a strenuous day yesterday in his campaign for re-election in the Fifth district. In the afternoon he spoke at five different home meetings, arranged by women supporters in various parts of the district, and at night addressed large meetings at the Stachler club, Bungalow club and Carlyle club, at all of which he was given his reception. Supervisor Mullins reiterated his determination to always insist on the lowest possible tax rate in the future as in the past. Notwithstanding his busy day, Supervisor Mullins made time to attend the big initiation ceremony at the Loyal Order of Moose lodge, of which organization he is an active member.

City Hall Plaza Is Scene of Activity When Public Visits Charity Booths

Oakland responded freely to the charity call of the West Oakland Home Harvest Market today. The city hall plaza, where the booths were situated, presented a scene of great activity. Satisfied shoppers and smiling "saleswomen" worked with a unity of purpose—that of keeping the orphanage going for another year.

Before the market had closed for the afternoon, it was evident that the sum realized by the sale of goods was reaching large proportions. It was hoped that a sum greater than $3000 would be realized. Eighteen booths were erected.

HOME COLORS ARE USED.

The entire bazaar was decorated in yellow and green, the colors of the Home. Yellow crepe decoration paper and greens, supplied by Oakland florists, brought about a harmonious color scheme. The corner booth, at the junction of Fourteenth and San Pablo, from which coffee and doughnuts were distributed, had additional decorative features of bamboo work. Palmists, fortune tellers, flower girls, music, food, kitchen supplies all added their bit for the Home. The public responded generously.

COMMITTEES WORK HARD.

In charge of the arrangement committee was Mrs. Daniel Webster. Working under her, with many assistants and aids, were the following: Fruits and nuts booth, Mrs. Emil Fritsch and Mrs. Fred Reed; flowers and plants, Mrs. Landers Redman and Mrs. Louis D. Manning; bread and crackers, Mrs. Samuel E. and Mrs. James Dunn; cake and pies, Mrs. A. V. Clark and Mrs. Charles Heesman; candy and popcorn, Mrs. J. A. Stearns and Mrs. John Goody; country store, Mrs. John Murphy and Mrs. A. F. Gimbo; merchants' lunch, Mrs. George Ryno and Mrs. E. Elopers Continue to Elude Bay City Police

With the police of all Central California cities looking for them, Walterine Price and Earl Christensen, whose disappearance was reported to the local authorities several days ago by the girl's mother, Mrs. Catherine Price, 933 Twenty-sixth street, who declares they have eloped, have not yet been found. No word has been received of the pair, and the police incline to the belief that they are in hiding in some nearby city, where they are awaiting a relaxation of official vigilance which will permit them to obtain a marriage license.

The girl is but 15 years old, and is a pupil at the Durant grammar school. She had left for school when her mother last saw her. When the girl did not return to her home that night, Mrs. Price learned that she had taken some of her clothing with her. Christensen is 22 years old, and is believed to live in Emeryville. The missing girl's parents had objected to Christensen's attentions to their daughter.

Police Inspector Harry Green is working on the case. He said today that he had as yet unearthed no clew to the whereabouts of the couple.

Mrs. Vanderbilt
"Hears Cannon"In Nightgown Flees Danger in France

PARIS, Aug. 26.—How a German shell sent Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt fleeing in her nightgown with her hair down her back and a pair of bare feet was related today by officers of the American ambulance corps, who accompanied her on a tour of the French front.

Mrs. Vanderbilt told French officers escorting the party that she "hoped to hear the cannon." She got her wish. One night while the party was sleeping at Font-a-Mousson the Germans opened a heavy bombardment which wrecked several nearby houses and sent the party rushing into a reinforced cave. Mrs. Vanderbilt had time only to throw a loose wrapper over her nightgown as she ran downstairs.

At another place she approached so near the trenches that a French soldier handed her that one of his comrades had been killed near the spot where she was standing only five minutes before.

Mrs. Vanderbilt paid a visit to Verdun and was the first American woman to enter the city since the Germans began their attack.

COAST LUMBERMEN FEAR RATE RAISE

Protests Threatened Increase Would Prove Ruin of Business.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 25.—More than 100 lumbermen of the Pacific Coast attended a meeting of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association here today, and by resolution, supplementing a telegram to President Wilson, protested against an increase in freight rates as a means of settling the threatening railroad strike.

An increase of rates, the lumbermen felt, would be ruinous to the lumber business, which has been fighting for decreased rates for some time. The resolution urged that the railroad heads adhere strictly to the principle of arbitration and induced the telegram sent in advance of the meeting here to President Wilson by J. B. Bloedel of Seattle, president of the West Coast Association.

The suggested advance in rates to absorb increased operating expenses in the event of an eight-hour compromise in the railway wage controversy, the association members pointed out would likely "disturb the commercial and industrial fabric of the nation."

The resolutions were addressed to the committee of railroad presidents. Thorpe Babcock, secretary of the association, announced the lumbermen of the coast would be asked to raise $50,000 to keep six experts in foreign fields to build up the American lumber markets.

This is in accordance with action taken at the recent foreign trade conference in Chicago.

The threatened strike, it was reported, had held up shipments of lumber and tended to cause a cessation in trade.

Explosions and Auto Worry Pleasant Valley

Five pistol shots set the neighborhood around Pleasant Valley Court on edge at 3:45 o'clock this morning. They brought Corporal of Police Brock and Deputy Sheriff Hitchcock running toward the scene of the supposed murder, or sham battle. After a brisk run they found E. G. Koch, 529 Thirteenth street; H. E. Balaister, 5543 Shafter avenue, and J. H. Tompkins, 2705 Fourteenth avenue, pushing an automobile along the street. They learned that the machine was the property of W. O. Copeland, 4485 Pleasant Valley Court, and that the three men, engaged in the nocturnal argument, were friends of his who had just left a morning supper party at his home. Copeland had no objection to his friends pushing the automobile around. He denied knowledge of the powder explosion. No one admitted knowing where the pistol shots came from. After a lengthy investigation the neighborhood settled down to rest. The three automobile movers were allowed to go home.

Edward Rowland Sill to Be Sermon Topic

A service of interest to teachers will be held at the First Congregational church on Sunday evening, called "Teachers' Night." For a number of years Dr. F. H. Van Horn, the pastor, has thus publicly recognized the indebtedness of all citizens to the school workers. This year, by way of illustration, the life of a famous Oakland teacher, Edward Rowland Sill, will be discussed.

OWLS WILL HOLD PICNIC.

Nest of Owls, No. 1921, will give a picnic tomorrow afternoon at Lafayette Park, at Stege Junction. In the evening the Owls and their friends will dance. Good music has been obtained and many games for the afternoon festivities have been planned.

Says to Judge,
"Go Run Away"Party to the Argument Faces Other in Court

Police Judge George Samuels heaped coals of fire upon the repentant head of Edward S. Illig, 1440 Euclid avenue, Berkeley, the Pacific coast representative of the Bethlehem Steel Company, today. Illig was arrested last night after his car had run down Judge Samuels as he alighted from a street car at Thirteenth street and Broadway. In the ensuing argument Judge Samuels says Illig "got fresh," whereupon the jurist cautioned his accuser. Illig appeared for trial in his accuser's court today. He became profusely apologetic when he discovered that the man with whom he had been "fresh" was a police judge, whereupon Judge Samuels delivered to him a lecture on motorist ethics, a homily on reasons for obeying the laws, and dismised him from custody.

"When his car ran up on me," explained Judge Samuels after Illig had left the courtroom, "I asked why he didn't obey the laws. 'Aw, go run away,' he told me, contemptuously, and so I thought he needed a lesson in etiquette."

WOMEN RIOT IN FRUIT PACKERS' STRIKE IN FRESNO

Heads Are Battered and Arrests Are Made in Quelling Disorder.

FRESNO, Aug. 26.—Riots in which one girl and a woman were painfully injured, several heads, including that of a policeman, rapped with clubs and a woman and a man striker were taken to jail resulted here when striking fruit pickers attempted to prevent those who refused to join the walk-out from going to work.

The trouble started yesterday, when one of the strikers hurled a brick that struck Katie Marks in the head. Patrolman Preston rushed into the crowd to rescue the unconscious girl. Strikers attacked the officer, showering blows on his head with umbrellas and sticks. Preston succeeded in dragging Miss Marks from the mob, and with her Vida Gagosian, one of the strike breakers. Responding to the riot, a squad, arrested Mrs. P. Garabedian, a widow, and Charles Taylor. Taylor was charged with assaulting Preston.

Management of the strike was turned over to the Fresno local of the J. W. V. Secretary McAvoy of the Industrial Workers telegraphed to headquarters at Chicago for permission to bring 600 J. W. V. agitators to Fresno to participate in a "general strike of all fruitpacking workers."

Throughout the day the strikers contented themselves with picketing the Guggenheims & Co. and Roeding Fig and Olive Company packing houses. These plants were closed. Toomey Brothers, T. J. Hammond and one or two smaller packers have granted the demands of the women for increased pay.

Mrs. Garabedian, the woman arrested, suffered a fractured arm when she resisted the officers who were placing her in a patrol wagon.

PIONEER RANCHER SUCCEUMS.

WARM SPRINGS, Aug. 26.—Antonio Pinheiro Gularie, for forty years a rancher here, died at his home last night at the age of 71 years. He is survived by a widow and four sons, Anthony, Manuel, John and Joseph. Gularie was one of the best-known ranchers in this section. His funeral will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the Catholic church.

A native missionary from Marshall Island and a native convert will speak at the Welsh Presbyterian Church on Harrison street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, Sunday evening at 7:30. All are invited.

KEELER TO READ POEMS.

Clara Keeler, the well-known poet, will give two of his most recent poems at the Sunday morning service of the church of the Universal Christ, in Hotel Oakland. These selections will be appropriate to the subject which Rev. Mr. Ruggles will discuss, "The Thousandfold Man."

DRIVER HURT
AS MACHINE
STRIKES MAN

Passerby Steps Before Auto at Crossing, Causing Light Car to Turn Turtle and Pining Owner Helpless Underneath

Two Friends of Injured Man Escape With Slight Bruises. But Pedestrian Who Walked Into Vehicle Is in Hospital

Clifford Adams, a drug clerk, living at 846 Hamover avenue, and Manuel T. Swass, a laborer of 2034 East Nineteenth street, were seriously injured this morning when the light machine driven by Adams struck Swass at Lakeshore boulevard and East Eighteenth street, careened and turned over. Adams may die as the result of his injuries, a concussion of the brain and probable fracture of the skull.

The young driver was pinned underneath the car, which had to be raised before he could be rescued and taken to the hospital.

Swass, who was crossing at the junction of the two streets, has a broken leg and bruises about the back. Carroll Faucette, 234 Lakeshore avenue, a lumber salesman employed by the E. K. Wood Lumber Company, and James A. Smille, 317 Lester avenue, an assistant manager of the same concern, riding in the car with Adams, were also injured. They were thrown clear of the machine when it overturned. They suffered only a few scratches and minor bruises.

According to Faucette the three men were going to work in Adams' machine, as they had been in the habit of doing for some time. Adams picked them up on his way to work this morning, according to custom. At the corner of Lakeshore boulevard and East Eighteenth street Swass, it is said, suddenly crossed in front of the car. Before Adams could avoid hitting the man the accident had occurred and the machine was lying, wheels upward, in the street with the driver underneath.

The two injured men were rushed to the Receiving hospital. Swass was on his way to work when he was struck down. The accident occurred at 7 o'clock this morning.

Faucette and Smille were able to go to work shortly after the accident.

McPike Leaves League
After Lease Trouble

Henry C. McPike, an attorney and one of the organizers of the Taxpayers' League, has resigned from the organization following quarrels with its officers about the body's stand on the F. M. Smith waterfront lease, for which a charter amendment was voted at Tuesday's special meeting. McPike says that the Taxpayers' League has "degenerated into a mere political machine." Dr. L. F. Herick, president of the body, has refused to discuss the causes of McPike's withdrawal.

The league opposed the charter amendment proposal. McPike favored it. The resultant fight caused a split of opinion among the members of the executive committee of the body. A few days before election, while McPike was out of the city, members of the executive committee drew up circulars which were sent throughout the city, denouncing the project and announcing an auditorium mass meeting. This meeting was held under the league's auspices and several prominent speakers spoke against the lease proposal.

McPike's withdrawal from the league was a blow to the organization.
